

KEEZELL IS BEATEN IN RACE FOR HOUSE

Former Senator Gets 133 Fewer Votes Than Leading Republican Opponent.

RESULT WAS ANTICIPATED

Factional Troubles Among Rockingham Democrats Responsible for Defeat.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisonburg, Va., November 4.— Disaffection among Democrats, due to the factional fighting within the party during the past two years, to-day caused the defeat of former Senator George B. Keezell, one of the Democratic nominees for the House of Delegates. He received 133 fewer votes than the leading Republican.

As a result, Rockingham County will be represented in the next House by the same two men who were there at the last session—Dr. Charles H. Rolston, of Mount Clinton, Democrat, and George N. Earman, of Penn Laird, Republican. The vote of Rockingham complete was as follows: Rolston, 1,748; Keezell, 1,465; Earman, 1,399; Michael H. Harrison, the other Republican nominee, 1,451; George S. Harnsberger, independent, 18.

It had been apparent for the last forty-eight hours that Senator Keezell would be defeated. The Republicans forced the fighting during the last two weeks of the campaign, led most ably and adroitly by Senator John Paul, while the Democrats had almost no leaders and neglected the organization. Many Democrats who had fought Keezell during the factional troubles could not forget their enmity, and announced on the streets that they would vote against him, no matter what it cost the county in representation or in appropriations for the State Normal School.

The Chesapeake Western Railway tax matter came to occupy the center of the stage, having been introduced and held firmly there by Senator Paul.
It was charged that Keezell represented the railroad before the State Corporation Commission while a Senator, and received a fee for securing a lower assessment of its taxes, but the real cause for his defeat was the spirit of factionalism.

The campaign was made spectacular by the entrance of Rev. A. P. Pank-houser, D. D., a United Brethren minister and leading Republican, who made many campaign speeches.

Considering the trend of feeling during the last few days, the smallness of the Republican majority is rather surprising and indicates that Keezell was stronger than the Republicans had thought.

On the enabling act matter, both House members will vote for the bill.
Harrison, the defeated Republican, would have voted against it.

VIRGINIA'S GOVERNOR-ELECT

HENRY C. STUART.

UNBOUNDED JOY IN SULZER'S CAMP

Deposed Governor Regards His Triumph as Personal Vindication.

WILLIAM SULZER.

New York, November 4.—William Sulzer, ousted from the governorship of New York last month by verdict of a high court of impeachment, was elected to the State Assembly to-day from the Sixth District by a sweeping majority, estimated at an early hour at 2,000 or more. Sulzer ran on the Progressive ticket and apparently polled more votes than his Republican and Democratic opponents combined. His old neighbors on the East Side rallied strongly to his support, and it was early apparent that he had swamped the opposition. There was jubilation unbounded in the former Governor's headquarters as the count began to record his victory. Sulzer himself was all smiles. He regarded his triumph as a personal vindication. He said, and issued a statement thanking his supporters and scoring Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, who, he declared, was condemned by the vote of the district.

"The people of the Sixth Assembly District," said Sulzer in his statement, "think better of me than of Mr. Murphy. They know why Mr. Murphy removed me from the governorship; they know when Mr. Murphy asked me to do wrong I refused to do wrong; they know that territory were directed as much at the Tammany organization in its city-wide and State bearings as to an appeal to his immediate constituency."

Sulzer made his fight for election to the Assembly on the lines of the statement he issued to-night. His campaign was a whirlwind affair, demonstrative crowds greeting him wherever he spoke. He rarely went outside of his district, but his speeches known that territory were directed as much at the Tammany organization in
an appeal to his immediate constituency.

CHILDREN MUST ATTEND SCHOOL

Petersburg Voters Declare Themselves in Favor of Compulsory Education.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Petersburg, Va., November 4.—The election passed off very quietly in Petersburg, only 500 votes being cast, about one-fourth of the vote cast at the Democratic primary in June. The Democrats carried the city by 400 majority. In addition to the regular ticket for State and city officers, the voters of Petersburg voted on the question of compulsory education.

Much interest was shown in this question, as the proposed legislation requiring school attendance applies only to children between the ages of eight and twelve years and the period of attendance is limited to twelve weeks during the school term, six of which must be consecutive. The vote was 417 for and 53 against.

Reports on Ore Traffic.
Duluth, Minn., November 4.—Reports on the ore traffic up to Saturday last from all the ports show that $7,542,412 tons have been shipped since the 1913 season opened. This is 2,241,115 tons more than was shipped in the corresponding period of 1912. It is several thousand tons more than the total shipment last year.

Can't Help But Admire Babies

Every Woman Casts Loving Glance at the Nestling Cuddled in Its Dress.

A woman's heart responds to the sweetness of a pretty child, and more so to-day than ever before since the advent of Motherer's Friend.

This is a wonderful external help to the muscles and tendons.
It penetrates the tissues, makes them readily yield to nature's demand for expansion, so there is no period of pain, discomfort, straining, nausea or other symptoms so often distressing during the anxious weeks of expectancy.

Mother's Friend thoroughly lubricates every nerve, tendon and muscle involved and is a sure preventive for caking of the breasts.

And particularly to young mothers is this famous remedy of inestimable value. It enables them to preserve their health and strength, and they remain pretty by having avoided all the suffering and danger that would otherwise accompany such an occasion.

You will find this splendid remedy on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle.

SOCIALISTS ARE BADLY DEFEATED

They Are Put to Rout in County Regarded as Their Stronghold.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Lynchburg, Va., November 4.—Campbell County, looked upon as the stronghold of socialism in Virginia, where to-day's election was enlivened by a fight for the House of Delegates between Frank Nelson, Democrat, and Thomas H. Steele, Socialist, resulted in a rout for Steele, as Nelson was elected by a majority of 300. Returns to-night from nineteen of the twenty precincts give Nelson 551; Steele, 257, a majority of 294 for Nelson.
The missing precincts probably will increase Nelson's majority slightly. Prior to the election the Socialists expected an easy victory for Campbell, and they were not slow to predict a vote of 500 in Lynchburg. Instead, they lost Campbell in a rather larger vote by 300, and were able only to poll forty-five votes in Lynchburg.

Fourteen precincts out of twenty in Campbell give Steele, Democrat, 653; Campbell, Socialist, 57; Downey, Socialist, Labor, 14, which is practically the vote of the remainder of the Democratic candidates.

DANVILLE CASTS VERY LIGHT VOTE

Less Than 30 Per Cent of Voters Take Trouble to Go to Polls.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Danville, Va., November 4.—To-day's election of city and State officials passed off very quietly. Out of a normal vote of nearly 1,000, only 470, or less than 30 per cent, were cast. Owing to the fact that none of the local candidates for offices had opposition, and it was a foregone conclusion that the candidates would be elected, very little interest was shown. John W. Carter, Jr., the nominee for Commonwealth's attorney, led the entire ticket, both State and city, with a total of 178, while Berrymann Green, for the House of Delegates, led the legislative ticket.
The vote follows:

Governor, Henry C. Stuart, 423; Lieutenant-Governor, J. Taylor Ellison, 419; Attorney-General, John Garland Pollard, 444; Secretary of the Commonwealth, R. O. James, 391; State Treasurer, A. W. Harman, Jr., 419; Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. C.
Stearnes, 365; Commissioner of Agriculture, G. W. Kolner, 429; House of Delegates: Berrymann Green, 386; R. L.
Johnson, 359; S. F. Clement, 343. The two Socialist candidates, Walker and Connor, who opposed them, received only a few scattering votes, although they apparently had been making a vigorous canvass.

For city offices: Clerk of Corporation Court, John R. Cook, 456; City Sergeant, P. H. Boisseau, 456; Commonwealth's Attorney, John W. Carter, Jr., 470; Commissioner of the Revenue, Joseph B. Anderson, 465; City Treasurer, George D. Georgehan, 468.

PICTURES TRUST AS BENEFICIAL FORCE

Judge McHugh Fights Government's Suit for Dissolution of Harvester Company.

St. Paul, Minn., November 4.—Judge William D. McHugh, fighting the government's suit for dissolution of the International Harvester Company, to-day in the United States District Court pictured the concern as a great educational and beneficial force. He assigned to George W. Perkins credit for this achievement.

"One hundred and twenty millions of capital were put into this concern," he said, "and of the amount one-half, $60,000,000, of stock was issued for cash. The rest was put aside to cover the properties of the concern, which were valued at $100,000,000." Now, I desire to impress upon this court that the most elaborate appraisal ever made in this country was made on the properties of the firm about to enter the International Harvester Company. It was found that these properties were worth more than $60,000,000, more than the stock issued to cover them."

Judge McHugh attacked the government's charge that the subject of foreign trade was an afterthought. He declared that the making of the company was done particularly with a view to the matter of foreign trade.

Edgar A. Hanroff, of Chicago, general counsel for the International Harvester Company, followed Mr. McHugh. He became sarcastic in his attack on the Department of Justice's brief, said there was no evidence to sustain six of the seven charges, and alleged that five of them had not been dropped out of the case and had not been mentioned.

Are You Acquainted With Your Neighbors?

There never was a medicine introduced in the city of Richmond that has completely won the hearts of the people like the Quaker Herb Extract and Oil of Balm that the Health Teacher introduced here. The cures have been seemingly marvelous. Some were cases of rheumatism of long standing; others were severe cases of that loathsome disease, catarrh of the head, throat, stomach, kidney, bladder, male, female weakness, others have expelled tapeworms, hook, stomach, pinworms—in fact, there is no limit to the wonderful good that Quaker Herb Extract has accomplished.

Mr. R. A. Evans, nineteen years of age, who resides with his parents at 1917 Maury Street, had trouble for two years with his stomach. After taking Quaker Herb Extract only five days he expelled a ninety-seven-foot tapeworm and is now well.

Little Lonnis A. Duggan, only nine years of age, who resides with his mother at 129 South Linden Street, had been treated for almost every disease known to children for six years, but never days' treatment of the Quaker Herb Extract and he expelled a forty-one-foot tapeworm, head and all complete, and the mother and friends can sincerely realize the wonderful improvement in the child.

Mr. Barth, who resides on West Main Street, and has been a conductor for the Virginia Railway and Power Company for seven years, has for a year and a half been an awful sufferer with stomach trouble; seemed as if something was gnawing in pit of stomach; as if it was eating his insides up; again, severe pains in lower right side; would put a mustard plaster on, the pains were as severe; had tried many different medicines, but nothing ever did what three bottles of the Quaker Herb Extract had done for him.

LESS THAN HALF OF VOTE POLLED

Apathy Reigns in Lynchburg, and Opposition Is Insignificant.

Lynchburg, Va., November 4.—Apathy prevailed here to-day in the election, the vote being considerably less than half that of the August primary.
The Socialist opposition to the legislative candidates paled into insignificance, John D. Easley defeating H. S.
Jones by a majority of 531.
Practically the entire vote was intended to be cast for the Democratic State ticket, but on account of the mixed condition of the names on the tickets, some of the candidates ran a little short of Stuart's vote, this being especially true of those candidates who were declared nominees and were not in the August primary, the people being unable to distinguish them from the Socialist and Socialist-Labor candidates. This difference, however, is not serious. The vote in the city for Governor was: Stuart (Democrat), 653; Campbell (Socialist), 45; Downey (Socialist-Labor), 14. For House of Delegates: Easley (Democrat), 611; Jones (Socialist), 50.

May Say Something Later on Election of Washington, November 4.—Secretary of State Bryan was asked to comment on the election in the city of Lynchburg, Va., where the defeat of socialism in that city, he said.

"I do not care to comment on the election of Mr. Mitchell, for the reason that it refers to a municipal contest. I may have something to say on the subject some other time, but not to-night, and in my own way
this achievement."

GOES TO PRINCETON TO CAST HIS VOTE

President Wilson Is Cordially Greeted by Townspeople and College Students.

Princeton, N. J., November 4.—President Wilson arrived here from Washington at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and immediately went to his home polling place to vote. On his way he was cordially greeted by townspeople and Princeton students. He was finally compelled to stop and mount the steps of University Hall and address a crowd of several hundred students. Mr. Wilson said he came to Princeton merely to vote and was very glad to see all his old friends.

When the President arrived the students were massed about the station staircase and cheering. Mr. Wilson started for the polling place and the students left in behind and formed a parade.

In his speech from the steps of University Hall, the President said:
"The gentleman who seems to be in authority," Mr. Wilson, indicating a cheer leader, "informed me that I can proceed no further without saying a word. I came here to vote for a very excellent man for Governor, the Democratic candidate. But I shall not indulge in politics. I only want to say how delightful it is to meet and renew my acquaintances, and how pleased I am at your reception."

The students followed the President to the polling place in a small fire house. The President voted after his brother-in-law, Dr. Stockton Axson. As Mr. Wilson came out, the students were still assembled. He laughingly said to them, "All over," which is one of the characteristic Princeton phrases for terminating all ceremonies. The students then dispersed and the President drove away in an automobile for a short ride through the country, returning to Washington late in the afternoon.

Returns to Washington.

Washington, November 4.—President Wilson returned to Washington at 9:30 o'clock to-night from New Jersey, where he voted in to-day's election. He drove at once to the White House to get the election returns. Early news received on the train from Massachusetts, Maryland and New York had pleased the President greatly.

LITTLE INTEREST FELT AT CAPITAL

Few Officials Remaining at Washington Receive Election
News With Apathy.

Washington, November 4.—Washington failed to get up much enthusiasm about today's election, but President Wilson returned to the White House to-night, wearing a smile of satisfaction over returns from Massachusetts, Maryland, New York, and New Jersey. The President watched the New Jersey returns closely for the final confirmation of the success of the Democratic ticket in New Jersey, for which he had spoken and voted.

The election just about depleted the capital of interested officials, but those who remained received the news of general Democratic success with apathy. Senators and Representatives had either hurried home to vote or taken a holiday. The chairman of the congressional committee, Representative Woods of Iowa, Republican, and Representative Doremus of Michigan, Democrat, paid little attention to early returns. They were interested particularly in the results in congressional elections in the Third Massachusetts, the Thirtieth and Twentieth New York, and the Third Maryland districts, which were the only ones for which they had spoken and voted.

Secretary Bryan watched the returns closely, adding the figures over the telephone as his home. He made no comment.
